MEMORANDA.

The W. G. Hall reports that the steamer Kauai broke her winch at Lahaina and being unable to repair it, was obliged to use a tackle in loading. She expects to leave for Honolulu tonight or Thursday morning.

The City of Columbia pulled up alongside the old fish market wharf this morning. Some changes and repairs suggested by the actual experience of the vessel under steam will be made in preparation for the proposed trip to China.

The iron ship Wega will move over to the railroad wharf to discharge about 200 tons of merchandise and will then sail to Iloilo for nitrates to be used here in the manufacture of fertilizers.

The Iwalei scheduled to sail yesterday was not able to get all her freight loaded in time. Her sailing was, in consequence, delayed until this afternoon.

The Coptic took away 1322 bunches of bananas and 217 boxes and cases of pineapples, the total valued at $1847. The ship Star of Russia will sail for the Sound in ballast toward the end of this week.

TRANSPORTS EXPECTED.

The transport Zealandia is expected from San Francisco tomorrow, and the Pennsylvania and Sheridan on Saturday. The latest advices are that the Zealandia was to sail June 22 and the others two days later. Colonel Ruhlén in anticipation of their arrival has loaded all the navy coal barges with coal, so that coaling can commence immediately on the arrival of the transports and be carried on very expeditiously.

NERVY YOUNG LADY.

There was a small incident during the exercises at Kamehameha Girls school last evening that illustrated the splendid discipline of the institution and decorum of the young ladies. The school had arisen from the chairs and begun the singing of a chorus, when several people detected a centipede on the white bodice of a young woman, moving rapidly toward her neck. A second girl, immediately in the rear, deftly swept the articulate stinger down.

It so turned out that the centipede fell in the chair, close against which were the white folds of the singer's dress. The young lady glanced down to see it starting to crawl upward again.

Just then a majority of girls would have screamed and perhaps dashed from the room. Not so with this Kamehameha miss. A slight look of terror swept over her face, there was a tremor of the shoulders. That was all. She stood rigid and did not lose a note of the song. She did not even draw away from the chair, for that would have attracted attention.

A gentleman went to the rescue and killed the centipede. In the meanwhile the dozen girls close by, who had become thoroughly cognizant of the danger, stood like soldiers at present arms and went ahead with the song.

BOSTON DIDN'T.

Boston did not put in a bid for the honor of Dewey's reception, but this may be due solely to Boston's innate prejudice against looking at warships under any circumstances. — Chicago Record.

"There are none so blind as those who will not see!"

There are some people who cannot be convinced that white is white and black is black, because they are determined to have their own way about it. Very good. Such people go through life missing the great truths and the greatest happiness as well as comfort.

There are others again who are convinceable. It is to the men of this class that we like to talk about the merits of our clothing.

They are better than nine-tenths of the made-to-measure clothes turned out in this city and the equal of the other tenth.

Alfred Benjamin & Company's clothes cost about half the price of made-to-order clothes and have every desirable attribute of the very best made-to-measure garments, besides embodying many unmatchable features strictly their own. That is why we say investigate the merits of the clothes bearing this label before going to a tailor. You risk nothing and stand to win a lot.
